

IS IT HATE STRONGER THAN LOVE?

Rezumat: Hate is part of human being even before love. In individual clinic work, the expression of hate has many occurrences and it can also be noticed in transfer. The analyst will have to identify the first elements of this hate for the other that is well expressed both individually and collectively in our yet civilized society. The relations between the figures of individual hate and collective hate should be explored sequentially.